

Aiming for Excellence

Biathlon Alberta – Officiating Course Opportunity
Entry-Level (Bronze) Officiating Course
Canmore – Saturday, October 26th, 2013

Becoming a Biathlon Official ...

By learning how to become a Biathlon Official, you can provide a positive experience for others and for yourself. The Entry Level program provides an introduction to biathlon officiating – no experience in the sport is necessary for this course. On successful completion of the eight modules and related competition experience, you will have the knowledge and skills needed to volunteer in any of the numerous, non-supervisory officiating positions at a biathlon competition.

The 8 modules comprising Entry Level training include:

- Course
- Results
- Stadium-Support
- Penalty Loop
- Timing
- Start-Finish
- Equipment Check
- Range

Date/Time:	Saturday, October 26 th 2013 09:00h – 17:00h
Location:	Biathlon Timing Building, Canmore Nordic Centre
Instructor:	Noel Charchuk
Fee:	This course is offered free of charge
To Register/ More info:	Contact Andy Holmwood by October 20 th : andy@biathlon.ca phone: 403.609.4746

**please come prepared to spend some time outdoors
*lunch – available at the day-lodge, or bring your own*